The board of Studenterhuset RUC held a meeting on 15 April 2026. Key topics included internal collaboration, website development, upcoming events, and practical matters related to operations and communication.

The board discussed its internal working culture and emphasized the importance of maintaining a constructive, positive approach while also setting clear boundaries in the work.

Website redesign

- A proposal for redesigning the Studenterhuset website was presented
- The offer is approximately 8,000 DKK
- The board agreed to proceed with a design draft before making a final decision
- The designer will be invited to the next board meeting

- A CV photo event in collaboration with Mici was discussed
- The board agreed to host the event in the autumn semester
- It was decided that she should receive compensation rather than only food

Keypads and communication with RUC

- Keypads had already been installed due to a misunderstanding
- The board emphasized the need for clearer communication with RUC to avoid unintended expenses

Storage and furniture (high cabinets)

- The board discussed purchasing new high cabinets from IKEA
- Further investigation and a project proposal will be prepared before any decision

Loan of decorations

- The possibility of lending out decorations was discussed
- The board decided not to invest in shared decoration storage
- Internal student organisations may still borrow items when possible

Other updates

- The upcoming workday will take place on 18 April at 12:00
- Recruitment status for volunteers and board members was discussed
- The board study trip will take place on 2 May, including activities and a shared dinner

The next board meeting will take place on 6 May at 17:00 at Studenterhuset RUC.
